Digital Grammar of Greek Documentary Papyri
"PapyGreek"
(ERC Starting Grant project)

Opening Colloquium, June 7-8, 2018
Venue: lecture hall 9 (3rd floor), Unioninkatu 40

Programme

Thursday, June 7th

13.30–13.45 Introduction and setting the agenda
13.45–14.15 Marja Vierros: ERC-project PapyGreek
14.15–14.45 Sonja Dahlgren: Studying Greek phonology in Egypt
14.45–15.15 Erik Henriksson: Developing the PapyGreek interface: some assembly required

15.15–15.45 Coffee and tea

15.45–16.15 Francesco Mambrini: Ten years of the Ancient Greek Dependency Treebank: an evaluation
16.15–16.45 Dag Haug: The PROIEL corpora
16.45–17.15 Helma Dik: Can we unify the lexicon? Lumping and splitting
17.15–17.45 Discussion

Friday, June 8th

9.00–9.30 Giuseppe Celano: An Automatic Morphological Annotation and Lemmatization for the Papyri of the Integrating Digital Papyrology Project
9.30–10.00 Alek Keersmaekers: Possibilities for Natural Language Processing in the Greek papyri
10.00–10.30 Zach Fletcher: Perseids: current state of development and future plans

10.30–11.00 Coffee and tea

11.00–11.30 Stephen Colvin: Tense and aspect: the reorganisation of stative, perfective and imperfective
11.30–12.00 Klaas Bentein: Towards a typology of relative clauses in Post-classical Greek
12.00–12.30 Gabriel Bodard: The Digital Classicist and the need for digital linguistics approaches for non-technical classics students and scholars
12.30–13.00 Final discussion

http://www.helsinki.fi/digital-grammar-of-greek-documentary-papyri

HELSINGIN YLIOPISTO
HUMANISTINEN TIEDEKUNTA

European Research Council
Established by the European Commission