

Stockholm University announces

25 Postdoctoral Research Fellowships

in any field of research

Deadline for application is December 17, 2012

Please note that prior to this a letter of invitation should be obtained from head of department at Stockholm University.

More information: www.su.se/english/about/vacancies

Stockholm University – our education and research produce results. www.su.se

Stockholm
University

2012-10-18

Stockholm University Announces:

25 Positions as Postdoctoral Research Fellow

in subject areas within the Faculties of Science, Humanities, Law, and Social Sciences.

Ref.no. SU 619-2974-12. Apply no later than December 17, 2012.

By investing in international recruitment of eminent researchers and students, international exchanges and increased collaborations, Stockholm University intends to stimulate the academic environment and strengthen the position of the University in the international market.

Stockholm University offers teaching and research positions in the fields of Science, Humanities, Law, and Social Sciences. The University enrolls approximately 64,000 students per year, and currently there are more than 5000 employees.

Stockholm University has a notable profile of conducting basic research, though applied research is also performed. Research within the areas of Science, Humanities, Law and Social Sciences maintains breadth and high quality. Thirty of the University's research areas have been promoted as leading,

For further information, visit www.su.se

Responsibilities

A Postdoctoral Research Fellow is expected to conduct research and, may to some extent, teach at the graduate and undergraduate levels.

Qualification Requirements

A Postdoctoral Research Fellow is employed foremost, in order to perform research, and should have a doctoral degree awarded at a university outside of Sweden.

Assessment Criteria

In the appointment process special weight will be given to scientific proficiency. Some weight may be given to teaching proficiency.

Terms of Employment

The employment as a Postdoctoral Research Fellow is for two years, with a possibility of prolongation due to special reasons, such as an absence from work due to illness, parental leave, etc.

Stockholm University strives to be a work place that is free from discrimination and with equal opportunities for all.

Application

The application may be written in English or Swedish, and should be in the following order:

1. CV (CV showing date of birth, when and where PhD was awarded, employment record);
2. An Application Letter demonstrating scientific results and plan for future research (max 10 pages);
3. List of publications;
4. Names of three referees, with email-addresses, that will submit, by Dec 17, letters of recommendation; each letter must include, in the e-mail subject field, the ref.no. SU619-2974-12
5. Letter of invitation from the head of the department at Stockholm University where the applicant aims to be placed.

Further information regarding these positions: contact Susanne Thedéen, Head of the Office for Humanities, Law and Social Sciences, phone: +46 (0)8-16 27 03, e-mail: susanne.thedeen@su.se, Åsa Borin, Head of the Faculty Office for Science, phone: +46 (0)8-16 22 66, e-mail: asa.borin@su.se.

Trade Union Representatives are Anqi Lindblom-Ahlm, SACO-S, Lisbeth Häggberg, ST (contact both on phone: +46 (8)8-16 2000 (operator)), and Gunnar Stenberg, SEKO, phone: +46 (0)70-316 43 41.

You are welcome to submit your application, labelled ref.no. SU 619-2974-12, no later than December 17, 2012, by e-mail to:

registrator@su.se

Submit your application as a single pdf file, arranged according to the above instructions. Indicate the reference number SU 619-2974-12 in the subject-line, adding HS if your application pertains to the subject areas Humanities, Law or Social Sciences, or Nat for the subject area of Science.

Letters of Recommendation should also be emailed in pdf format, with the ref.no. SU 619-2974-12 indicated as subject, to: registrator@su.se.