Frame of Reference

The conference will be dealing with the issues of a multicultural society and dialogue. On a reality level, the term multicultural Europe refers to the everyday situations in which people of different backgrounds come together and interact in schools, at workplaces, at various conferences or on football stadiums. During conference we will focus on the Culture and the media, Migration and Youth. These three topics are also the major topics of The European Year of Intercultural Dialogue 2008. Within the multicultural environment the participants will share their opinions, experiences and knowledge in intercultural dialogue, gain new friendship and get to know new cultures.

Participants

Young people from 18-29 years old from EU Member states and Candidate countries. Participants will be invited on the basis of motivation letter.

Participation fee

No participation fee. The organizers will provide you accommodation, meals, lectures and social activities.

Working language

The working language will be English.
